Dear Sir:-

A friend of mine has in his possession a large sized Copper medal, I suppose, which was unearthed by a laborer ploughing in a field near here some few days ago. It has a fine impression of a female head with the words "Marie D'Orleans Duchesse De Wurtemberg" surrounding it - and underneath "Montaigny 7"

On the reverse side is a female figure standing, holding sword, by a small pillar or block surrounded by a hand holding a helmet - Encircling this design are the words "Statue De Jeanne D'Aro" with the imprint "1837"

He desires to know if the piece has any value as a rarity - and not knowing, I have taken the liberty of addressing you, Sir, whom I presume could perhaps inform me, with the request that you will kindly advise me if the piece has any worth.

By an answer you will favor

Yours very Respectfully

Dear Sir:

A friend of mine has in his possession a large sized copper medal, I suppose, which was unearthed by a laborer ploughing in a field near here some few days ago. It has a fine impression of a female head with the words "Marie D'Orleans Duchess De Wirtenberg" surrounding it, and underneath "Montagny 7". On the reverse side is a female figure standing holding sword by a small pillar or black surrounded by a hand holding a helmet. Encircling this designer are the words "Statue De Jeanne D'Aro" with the imprint "1837".

He desires to know if the piece has any value as a rarity, and not knowing, I have taken the liberty of addressing you, Sir, whom I presumed could perhaps inform me, with the request that you will kindly advise me if the piece has any worth.

By an answer you will favor.

Yours very Respectfully,
Thos. S. Armistead
